New Year's Hopes and Dreams

Welcome to 2017! With a new year upon us comes many hopes and dreams for us and our children. Here is a list of some of the hopes and dreams our students stated in December:

"I would like to be a community helper so I could keep the community safe and help people." ~ 9 year old

"I would like to be the mayor so I could give everyone a million dollars." ~ 7 year old

"My dream would be for it to be summer all the time, every month all year." ~ 7 year old

"I hope for Valentine's Day love!" ~7 year old

"I want a snowman to be real!" ~6 year old

"I hope my mom likes the gift I made for her and I can be a teacher someday." ~7 1/2 year old

"For everybody to be HAPPY!" ~11 year old

Parent Advisory

We look forward to answering any Title 1 questions and hearing your feedback and ideas about our Title 1 programming. Please attend our next meeting January 25, 7:45AM @ Hussey School. Come pick a book for your child, gain a new resource, and have breakfast with us...coffee included! ☺

Upcoming Dates to Remember

Escape School

You won't want to miss this event where you will work with family and friends to solve puzzles to find the key to "escape school." (Based on the Escape Room Craze!)

Technology Corner

We mentioned this website before, but it's worth mentioning again...

<http://www.mycapstonelibrary.com>

This is an interactive library of an immense collection of quality books that can be read to your child. Each child will surely find a book that interests them! Check it out...
